Attack on Girl Leads to Uprising By Indignant Citizens

17 WOUNDED AS MEN BATTLE ALL NIGHT

Suspects Barricade House and Withstand Attack by Whites

(By United Press Leased Wire)

ROSEWOOD, Fla., Jan. 5.—

Five persons were known dead and at least seventeen others were believed killed in race rioting which broke out here last night.

Two of the dead were white men who joined a posse at Sumner to punish negroes for attacking a white girl. Many of both races were wounded in the fighting last night and today.

The fighting broke out when negroes, believed to be shielding one of the fugitive blacks, barricaded themselves in a log cabin and repulsed an attack of the posse. Fighting continued throughout the night and was still in progress this afternoon. A renewed attack with sanguinary results was expected at dark.

Call Reinforcements. Reinforcements from the surrounding country poured into Rosewood throughout the day, preparatory to a mass assault on the black stronghold.

The house where the negroes are huddled was said to have been riddled with bullets in the fighting. The number of negroes dead could not be definitely estimated because the number in the house when the battle started was not known.

Among the dead are Billy Wilkerson, storekeeper, and Harry Andrews, lumber company superintendent. The bodies of Andrews and Wilkerson were in the center of the fighting most of the night, but were recovered shortly after dawn. When the main skirmish died down near midnight, guards were maintained around the barricaded house and sporadic fighting continued until sunrise.

RUSH REINFORCEMENT TO AID OF WHITES. GAINESVILLE, Fla., Jan. 5.—Fresh outbreaks were feared today as a result of a race riot at Rosewood last night in which six persons were killed and a score injured.

Three of the dead were white persons. The majority of the injured were blacks. Practically the entire white population of Cedar Key, heavily armed, was reported marching on Rosewood in retaliation for last night's killing and further serious trouble was anticipated by officials.

Four trainmen die, many hurt in crash. BROOKFIELD, Mo., Jan. 5.—Four men were killed and several injured, one perhaps fatally, last night when two freight trains on the C. B. and Q., traveling fifty miles an hour, crashed head on near here.

Both engines were demolished and the track was torn up for nearly 1000 feet. The engineers and firemen of both trains were killed instantly.

INCIDENT OF ARREST CLOSED, SAYS DOCTOR. Dr. D. A. Harwood, Santa Ana physician, said today that to the best of his knowledge the incident of his New Year's Eve arrest was closed.

Dr. Harwood was arrested New Year's Eve at Newport Beach and charged with violation of the city ordinance prohibiting unlawful possession of liquor, according to the authorities. He deposited $10 bail with City Recorder Byron Hall at the Beach resort, and since has not been cited to appear for hearing of his case, he said. Dr. Harwood stated that the bottle in question did not belong to him.

BANKER DROPS DEAD. NEW YORK, Jan. 5.—W. O. Jones, 65, vice president of the National Park Bank and one of the best known bankers in the country, dropped dead of apoplexy in his Broadway office.

Plan Recall of U. S. Troops On Rhine As New Crisis Looms

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.—The American troops on the Rhine may be withdrawn in the near future, Secretary of War Weeks declared today after the meeting of President Harding and his cabinet, at which the precarious European situation brought about by the collapse of the premier's conference in Paris, was discussed.

Weeks stated that no orders had been sent to General Allen, commander of the American forces, but said "there is a prospect of ordering the soldiers home in the near future."

Shortly after Weeks' announcement, a resolution authorizing the President to order the return of all United States troops from Germany at the earliest possible moment, was introduced in the senate by Senator Reed, Democrat, Missouri.

Haynes to Attend Portland Booze Parley and Then Visit Southern California

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.—Prohibition Commissioner Roy Haynes who will leave Washington on January 13 to attend a convention of sheriffs, attorneys and enforcement officers at Portland, Ore., on January 18, today announced the itinerary of his trip to the coast and return.

It included: Portland, January 17-20. San Francisco, January 21-22. Los Angeles, January 23-24. El Paso, Tex., January 25. During his stay in Portland Haynes will make a side trip to Salem, Ore., to address the state legislature.

The crisis will come January 15 when the next reparations payments by Germany fall due. The Cuno government is expected to ask a moratorium and Italy and Belgium, as well as France, are opposed to this.

Premier Poincare instructed Louis Barthou to call an immediate meeting of the reparations commission for notifications of Germany's alleged default in coal payments.

John Eradbury, British member of the reparations commission, resigned. Two sessions therefore must be held under the Versailles treaty to allow sufficient time for all to have a voice in the arrangements. Then, well informed observers believe, the march on the Ruhr will begin.

French troops along the Rhine will be reinforced. It is believed an advance guard will push into Westphalia and occupy the richest German coal country.

Finance Chief Is Shot Down by Assassin While En Route to Office; May Die.

PRAGUE, Jan. 5.—Finance Minister Raschin of Czechoslovakia was shot twice by an anarchist while driving to his bureau this morning.

Raschin was hurried to a nearby hospital, where it was reported his wounds were serious.

A bank employee named Sapl was held following the shooting. It was charged he fired twice at the finance minister, each shot taking effect. He said his motive was political hatred.

Bankers of Czechoslovakia have been aroused to bitter opposition to Raschin's currency reforms.

PARIS, Jan. 5.—Premier Poincare conferred twice last night and again this morning with General Maginot regarding Marshal Foch's plan for eventual military action against Germany to collect and guarantee reparations payments.

(By United Press Leased Wire) PARIS, Jan. 5.—France mobilized her Rhine forces today, recalling all troops on leave from Mayence barracks.

General Degoutte ordered this action immediately the news of the breakdown of the reparations conference reached the Rhineland. No military action against Germany will be taken, however, until orders are received from Paris.

France today planned conferences with Belgium and Italy, looking to a possible joint move to collect reparations from Germany.

Great Britain will not be invited to this conference if one is arranged.

WEE CORPSE SWATHED IN JUTE SACK

Mystery Shrouds Death of Tiny Boy Whom Motorist Discovered

Somehow in Southern California was his mother, her mind tortured by the knowledge that she had abandoned him, or had caused him to be abandoned, virtually in the hour of his birth.

The wee form, icy cold and swathed in a newspaper and a rough gunny sack, was found at dusk yesterday at a lonely spot near the intersection of the Los Alamitos and Garden Grove roads.

It was C. E. Trimble who found it. He was driving along the road in his automobile. At a point 150 feet east of the intersection he noticed, lying beside a ditch alongside the highway, what appeared to be a new gunny sack.

Deciding that he might find use for it, he picked up the bag and noticed that it was not empty. It contained a bundle, from which he removed its covering of newspaper and found the corpse of an infant boy.

He immediately notified with the office of Sheriff C. E. Jackson. Coroner C. D. Brown was also notified.

The baby, apparently a normal and healthy child in every respect, weighed eight pounds.

An inquest will be held either late today or tomorrow.

The formal inquiry into the death of the little stranger will probably disclose nothing that would lead to the identity of his parents.

The fact of the boy having been found will be brought out.

A physician who examined the tiny body will testify to the singular circumstances that the head and upper part of the little torso were strangely cold.

The physician will perhaps offer in explanation the suggestion that the tiny baby, in its coarse shroud, may have lain for an unknown period in a refrigerating room. He will have no knowledge of how the baby came to be in such a place.

Child Born Alive. He will also testify that his examination convinced him that the child was born alive, but that proper measures to cause the tiny lungs to fill with air and respiration were not taken.

The six men on the jury will be asked to note the sack, and will be shown the newspaper, which was printed in Los Angeles on the morning of December 17.

Trimble will testify as to how he found the body.

The jurors will return their verdict.

The little corpse will be buried. The gruesome chapter will be closed.

And yet— Somewhere in the Southland, a mother's mind will be tortured.

CUTS OFF HEIR FROM ESTATE OF $21,500. Cutting off one daughter with $1, and leaving the other eight children his entire estate amounting to $21,500, the will of the late A. E. Leach was today on file in superior court.

James Leach, Placentia, an executor, filed the petition to probate. The heirs are the following sons and daughters: Re, Iva, Rudolph, Greer, Grey, Ernest, Laud and Geneva. Geneva will receive all the property that is not otherwise specifically assigned. Another daughter, was allowed but $1.

Attorney General Coco himself questioned the witness, who, at the request of the state of Louisiana was first sworn. "When I got to Eason's Ferry at the lake about 6:30 on the morning of December 22, the negro ferryman met me and told me the lake had been dynamited the night before," Nettles said, answering the questions of the attorney general.

Deciding there was nothing I could do, I went to the river bank where my skills were moored. I was going to take in my lines.

"Floating in the lake, right before me and to the land side of the skiff was the body of Watt Daniels.

"I looked out farther and there was another body, Richards. It was floating in the water."

Witness in Illinois Mine Massacre Trial Says Peace Delegation Routed by Volley

MARION, Ills., Jan. 5.—John Crampton, union miner, testifying in the Herrin massacre murder trial, declared two citizens were on their way to make peaceable negotiations with officials of the Lester mine June 21, the day before the riots, when armed guards turned them back with a volley of shot.

"These two men were unarmed," Crampton said.

Crampton, on cross-examination, said hundreds of men, many carrying guns, were congregating in the vicinity of the Lester mine on the afternoon of June 21.

This mob, swarming in the neighboring fields, fired into the mine throughout the afternoon, the witness said.

SET INAUGURAL OF GOVERNOR FOR TUESDAY. (By United Press Leased Wire) SACRAMENTO, Jan. 5.—Inauguration of Governor-elect Friend W. Richardson may not take place until Tuesday night, it became apparent today. Following Monday's battle for speaker both houses must organize. A wild scramble for the job is expected, but Richardson says he will take no part in it.

"I'm interested only in efficiency and economy," he declared.

Richardson was bulwarked in his treasurer's office with his old faithful bodyguard, George Squires, his new secretaries, Harry Lutgens and Joseph Vickers, holding off the line of office and favor seekers.

He will have an inaugural speech opening his administration. It will be delivered on Tuesday afternoon or on Tuesday evening, before a joint session of the legislature.

T. M. Wright, dry progressive of San Jose, is emerging as the compromise candidate for speaker of the assembly. As members of the farm "bloc" began to arrive today for the big legislative battle Monday, Wright's name was predominant in the lobby talk.

Frank Merriam arrived today claiming fifty-four votes. One of them was Wright. Many others were also men of avowed progressive leanings.

On the other hand the progressives rallying around Al Rosenbush claimed that the legislators from the cow counties would not fail to fall into line when the final vote is called on Monday afternoon. They were counting actual votes safely over the required forty-one, but were making no claims as to names.

DREDGE WORKERS IN BOAT EFFECT RESCUE. Mrs. Obenchain's Kin Is Removed to County Hospital Here

A complaint was drawn up here late today charging K. S. Barnett with contributing to the delinquency of Glensy Smart.

"He did not attack me. He did not tear my clothes from my body. He made no improper advances. He had always conducted himself as a perfect gentleman in my company. Why he deserted me in that lonely spot, and left me in my fate—in the dark and in the thick of that terrible, piercing cactus—I do not know. He said he wanted to show me the oil wells, and he gave me two drinks from a bottle. I never want to see his face again."

Tossing on a bed of pain, but suffering silently, while physicians and nurses labored to remove hundreds of tiny, biting, torture-laden cactus needles from her body, comely Glensy Smart, 19, and a half sister of Madalynne Obenchain, of Kennedy murder fame, today pieced together a broken story in the psychopathic ward of the county hospital here.

Unable to explain why she was deserted by K. S. Barnett who, she claims, accompanied her from Los Angeles to the desolate mesa overlooking Newport harbor, and stoutly maintaining that she had not been mistreated, this winsome member of the Obenchain family voiced her heartfelt thanks for her rescue—and then thought of her mother.

"Uoor mother!" she sighed as nurses worked over her. "I hope she does not hear about this. Madalynne's cactus and this! It will just about kill her!"

According to J. A. Porter, city marshal of Newport Beach, Glensy, almost nude and virtually unconscious from fright, liquor and exposure, was discovered late yesterday by dredge workers piloting a small boat in the Orange county channel.

These men, Kenneth Goodykountz and J. E. Clanton, were attracted to the mesa by a woman's scream. Rowing toward the mesa, the men, in the gathering dusk, were able to make out a shadowy figure floundering in the cactus.

"At first we did not know what to make of the case," said Goodykountz, "as we thought we were mistaken about the screams. They were repeated, however, and I thought I saw a woman, waving her bare arm."

"We made all haste in rowing to the vicinity of the screams. As we drew nearer, we saw a woman, all but naked, topple over in the cactus."

"When we reached her side, she was seemingly unconscious and her body was literally covered with cactus needles. Her dress was no shoes, no stockings, her dress was gone, and her only apparel consisted of a thin undergarment and an undershirt."

"Unable to rouse the young woman, Goodykountz and his companion made all haste in removing her to Newport. Here she was examined by City Marshal Porter, given first aid, and taken to the county hospital for observation and treatment."

"I came to Orange county late yesterday afternoon with K. S. Barnett, an oil salesman of Los Angeles," Miss Smart told hospital attaches and county officers who questioned her today.

"I had no reason to mistrust Barnett, as I have known him for seven or eight months. I understand his father is a wealthy oil man. My mother had been on oil expeditions with him, and I consented to drive here with him when he proposed a little trip. I thought it strange he did not want my chum, Peggy Coombs, to accompany us. When I asked her to join us, he objected."

"Just before we reached the Long Beach Consolidated Oil well, between Costa Mesa and Newport, he said:

SEE 'GAS' PRICE WAR AS RETAIL RATE CUT

STANDARD SAYS SLASH DUE TO BIG SUPPLY

The "high cost" of joy riding was reduced today by a cut of 2 cents in gasoline prices. A 2-cent cut was also made on distillate.

Retail prices in Santa Ana today were 20½ cents a gallon. Yesterday they were 22½ cents. They are the lowest since 1918. A drop of 1 cent was made about a month ago.

The Standard Oil company took the lead in the price cut and was followed immediately by the other distributing companies in the state. The lower rate is effective in California, Oregon, Washington, Nevada, Alaska and Hawaii.

It was believed in some quarters that the slash of 2 cents presaged a battle by the Standard against the Union, Shell and Associated. Standard oil officials, however, denied this, and declared the cut was not the result of a price war, but a result of the great supply now available.

Crowd Standard Union. It is known that the Associated and Shell in the past year have crowded into territory in the south heretofore held almost exclusively by the Standard and Union. It was pointed out that action of the Associated and Shell in establishing distributing and retail stations in the Southland possibly has cut into the business of the Standard, and that the latter is resenting the encroachment by reducing quotations.

The Shell company recently bought out the Puente Oil company, which was serving territory in Southern California. What was formerly Puente gas and oils is now being sold in this city under the name of the Shell.

Plan Shell Plant Here. This company already has made arrangements for establishing a large distributing plant here on Fruit street, between the tracks of the Southern Pacific and Santa Fe railroads.

That the company contemplates the establishing of oil stations in the city was disclosed when application was made two weeks ago to the city council for permission to build one at Seventh and Main.

The application was referred to a committee of the council. The committee has not reported, and before doing so will make a thorough investigation. J. W. Tubbs, a member of the committee, said that so far as he knew, no protests against establishment of a station on the corner had been filed with the committee. C. H. Chapman is chairman of the committee.

PROBATION SOUGHT BY PITCHFORK MAN

Clarence Gorthy, tried yesterday before Superior Judge Z. B. West on charges of assault with a deadly weapon, namely a pitchfork, and found guilty subsequently of simple assault, today applied for probation. Hearing on the motion was set for next Friday at 9 a. m.

After an hour and fifteen minutes of deliberation yesterday, the jury returned a verdict of guilty of simple assault. The penalty attached to such an offense includes a maximum fine of $500 and six months in the county jail.

The verdict was received by Deputy County Clerk A. L. Hitchcock, in the absence of Judge West, who was called to Los Angeles. Gorthy appeared for sentence this morning.

C. M. Sylvas, complaining witness, testified that Gorthy chased him "right out of one of his shoes," and that armed with a pitchfork, the defendant had pursued him for several hundred yards.

WOMAN IS GRANTED COURT PROBATION

Considering the ill health of the defendant, her family, and the fact that the offense was largely technical, Superior Judge R. Y. Williams today granted probation to Mrs. Zetta Vos Burgh, of Newport, who had previously pleaded guilty to issuing a worthless check.

Considerable interest was attached to the Vos Burgh case. When Mrs. Vos Burgh, bidding farewell to her children, while her husband slept at their home in Newport Beach disappeared, fears were felt for her safety. A search was unavailing for several weeks, until finally, after a Santa Ana merchant had drawn a complaint, charging her with giving him a check for $30, which was drawn on her husband's account in a Huntington Beach bank, and which was not valid, she was located in a hotel at San Diego, and arrested by Deputy Sheriff Herman Zabel. At that time, it was declared that she had left Santa Ana in company with a man not her husband.

Arraigned before Judge Williams a week ago, she had entered a plea for probation. There are 341,000 more women than men in London, according to latest census figures.

It would require 14 days to travel a mile at the pace of a snail.

Trial Date for Alleged Bad Check 'Fagin' Is Set for February 8

Trial of Thaddeus Carpenter, alleged bad check writer, who was said to have employed an eight-year-old boy to distribute the checks for him, was set for February 8 at 10 a. m. by Superior Judge R. Y. Williams, before whom he was arraigned today.

Carpenter pleaded not guilty when the information was read to him. He was represented by Attorney Morris Cain.

DEFENDANT'S FAMILY AND PREVIOUS RECORD WIN STAY OF PENALTY

In consideration of the defendant's family, which includes a wife and several children, and of his previous good record, Supervisor Judge R. Y. Williams today placed Walter Jackman, who pleaded guilty to driving an automobile while under the influence of intoxicating liquor, on probation for two years.

Jackman was arrested on the complaint of W. F. Sibley, Huntington Beach, who said that the defendant had been unable to drive his car properly at San Juan Capistrano.

Jackman told the court that he had been induced to take a few drinks of moonshine on a party, and that it had suddenly affected him, so that he was unable to operate the car.

YOUNG SISTER OF MADALYNNE IS INJURED

"We followed the road a little distance and then he stopped the car and offered me a drink from a bottle. It was whiskey. I took two small drinks, one then, and one a little later. Instead of going to the well, he drove off on another dim road in the cactus. I do not recall much after that."

"Finally, we got out of the car. I wandered around a little and then I heard him start the engine. The next instant he drove away. I screamed and called for him to come back. He paid no attention. It was getting dark."

Cactus Needles Stab Her. "I stumbled into the cactus, lost the road entirely. Then I fell. The terrible needles stabbed me like a thousand knives. In my confusion, I ran toward the bluff. I fell again and rolled down a bluff. I was in the very midst of a thicket of cactus. Everywhere I turned the thorns stabbed me."

"At last I began to tear off my clothes. The torture was intense. First my coat, then my dress; finally my hose and other things. I was almost nude and I was insane with fear and pain."

"Then I thought I saw two men in a boat. I thought this must be a dream—I didn't know there was any water over there. But I screamed at the top of my voice, and that is all I remember. I guess I fainted."

Visits Hospital. Barnett, according to Marshal Porter, appeared at the county hospital at 2:30 a. m. today. Nurses, reporting that he was intoxicated, refused to admit him. Later he disappeared.

Acting upon information given by Miss Smart, officers communicated with A. G. Barnes, 840 South Flower street, Los Angeles, said to be an intimate friend of the young woman.

Barnes, declaring he wanted to do everything possible to aid Miss Smart, appeared at the hospital this afternoon. She turned her personal effects over to him and indicated she would return to Los Angeles with him as soon as she was released from the hospital.

Barnes, who said he was the proprietor of a hotel in Los Angeles, declared he knew nothing whatever of Barnett.

Miss Smart, who gave her mother's address as 5323 Pasadena avenue, Los Angeles, said she had been staying with Miss Peggy Coombs at 1824½ Northwestern avenue. On the eve of Madalynne's second trial, Gladys was arrested on complaint sworn to by the sweetheart, who claimed he had been robbed by the young beauty. The case was later dismissed.

Jokes With Nurses. Despite the fact that she was tortured by the cactus barbs, Miss Smart, joked with hospital attendants, declared she was something of a philosopher, and intimated that she could "write a good scenario of her experiences in Orange county."

"This is my second trip to Santa Ana," she said. "Once I thought of coming here to get married, but if this is the kind of reception you give them, I'm glad I didn't."

"Now I want to go home, but not to my mother. I must go to a friend's. Poor mother! I hope she doesn't hear of this!"

2 ARE INJURED AS AUTOS HIT NEAR TURN

Two cars were wrecked beyond repair, and two persons were slightly injured about 7 a. m. today in a crash at the turn near the Orange county hospital.

The machines were driven by W. F. Steuwig, Santa Ana, and A. L. Goddicksen, 306 West Center street, Orange. One of the machines cut the corner, according to a report made by Deputy Sheriff C. M. Wood, who investigated the accident, and a head-on collision resulted.

Not even the engines of the cars escaped damage, so severe was the impact. Both men were cut by the flying glass, and were bruised when they were thrown to the ground. They were taken to the hospital, where they received first aid treatment. They were able to proceed to their homes.

FRIENDS KNOW HIM AS HOOCH SO MAN CHANGES HIS NAME

The name is Alexander Huck, please.

Superior Judge Z. B. West today granted a petition, brought by Alexander E. Huck, to change the last name to Huck.

Huck said that his friends mispronounced his former name, often making it resemble, in sound, a word synonymous with a forbidden beverage.

BIG SUIT DEMURRER IS AGAIN CONTINUED

Hearing on the demurrer to the second amended complaint in the suit of Mrs. Lionel Roberts against the city of Santa Ana and Mayor J. G. Mitchell and Councilman John Tubbs, for $150,000 damages, said to have resulted from a raid here, was continued to January 12 at 10 a. m. by Superior Judge Z. B. West today.

A previous demurrer had been sustained, and a second amended complaint was filed today.

CAL. DEPUTY SIFTS REALTY DEALS HERE

W. S. Miller, deputy state real estate commissioner, was here today investigating alleged irregularities concerning real estate transactions, the result of complaints made through the Santa Ana Realty board. He was a guest at the meeting of the board at St. Ann's Inn at noon.

It was announced that the annual election of officers would be held next Thursday at the noon luncheon. Freeman H. Bloodgood, president, urged a full attendance of members.

The annual banquet and inaugural ball of the board will be held in February, on a date to be selected later.

J. C. Wallace, secretary, said that the board closed the year with a clean slate, so far as concerned bills against the organization.

Twelve members are needed to increase the roster to 100 and efforts will be made to procure that number during the month.

KFAW HEARS YOUNG CORNETIST, SINGER

KFAW patrons were loud in their praise today of the program broadcasted last night from The Register station when cornet numbers were interspersed with vocal numbers by a soloist from the University of California Glee club which appeared at the Yost theater.

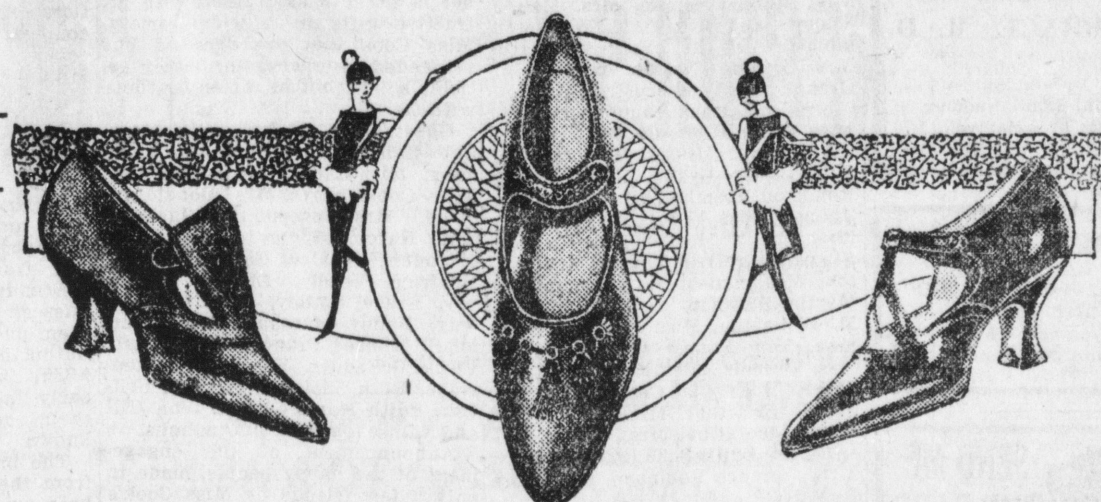

Through the courtesy of E. D. Yost, manager, the club's soloist, W. O. Bullock, and the accompanist, Frank Dunsmore, appeared on the program. The chosen numbers of the singer were "Invictus" and "Duna." According to listeners, the numbers carried exceedingly well and were thoroughly enjoyed as were the cornet solos by 14 year old Francis Day, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Day, 611 Lacy street.

At the conclusion of his final number, the young cornetist spoke a message to his mother, listening in at her home.

An excellent talk on the work of the Boy Scouts was delivered by Scout Executive Roland Dye. Phonograph numbers loaned by Carl G. Stock completed an unusually interesting program.

SAYS AMERICAN WOMEN SLAVES TO FASHION

(By United Press Leased Wire)
CHICAGO, Jan. 5.—American women are selling out their beauty to the style mongers. Dressing to the dictates of fashion is ruining the feminine figure. Charming busts are giving way to undulating hips and the Venus woman has become the faddist femme. This was the substance of an interview today with Ralph Monti, instructor in women's dress designing at the Chicago Academy of Fine Arts.

"The American woman has fallen prey to the French dressmaker, and is sacrificing her beauty to the fads and foibles of fashion," declared Monti, who teaches that dressing is an art and each woman a canvas, to be made or marred by the right strokes of design.

Tells How to Dress
"Each woman has her own problem of dress to solve, depending on her figure," declared the style expert.

"Fat women, for example, should never wear bright colors, nor tight clothes," he said. "They accentuate their fatness. But when the fashion kings in Paris decree that lurid colors and skin-tight dresses are the vogue, the fat ladies are the first to fall in with the dictum."

"Slender women, on the other hand, should wear clothes that accentuate the lines of the figure."

"The long, loose slinker skirt, with belt draped around the hip line, perverts the beauty of a thin woman, emphasizing the hips, which are anything but beautiful."

Recommends Corsets
Passing of the corset is taking the Venus out of the feminine figure, according to Monti, who recommends a corset for every woman.

"The old iron stave models are not to be condemned," said Monti, "and every woman should wear at least a fur-lined corset from the waist line to the hips."

"Checking corsets," he continued, "is a fad that is developing large, undulating hips at the expense of good-looking busts."

"Women should study their best points and adapt present-day modes in dress—the result would be a nation of well-dressed beauties."

SALARY INCREASE IS GIVEN BUYING AGENT

Recognizing the valuable service F. W. Slabaugh is rendering the county as purchasing agent, the board of supervisors has authorized an increase of $75 a month in his salary. Dating from the first of the year, he will receive $300 a month instead of $225.

Dr. Slabaugh, it was said, is continuing in the county service at a personal sacrifice. According to friends, Slabaugh has asked several times to be relieved of the position, but the supervisors have turned a deaf ear to his appeal. The increase in salary is partly to compensate the purchasing agent for the personal sacrifice he is making.

Slabaugh, regarded as one of the most competent purchasing agents in the state, has saved the county many thousands of dollars by shrewd handling of the department.

DR. BALL LEAVES FOR SACRAMENTO

Dr. C. D. Ball and daughter, Miss Arvilla, left here by automobile this afternoon for Los Angeles, whence they will leave at 6:15 p. m. by train for Sacramento, where Dr. Ball goes to represent Orange county in the assembly. It is possible that Miss Ball will become his secretary during the session of the state legislature.

Dr. Ball carried with him a parental home and school bill prepared by R. R. Miller, county probation officer, and Judge R. Y. Williams, juvenile court judge. Dr. Ball will introduce the bill.

Walter Eden, state senator, departed Tuesday for Los Angeles, where he will make his home following adjournment of the legislature. His term as senator does not expire for two years.

Eden has accepted a position in the legal department of the California Title Insurance company, Los Angeles, and will take up his duties after final adjournment of the legislature.

He and Mrs. Eden will leave Los Angeles by automobile for the state capital tomorrow. Eden has been a resident of Santa Ana for ten or twelve years. He came here to fill a position with the Orange County Title company.

It is expected that during the recess in February he and Mrs. Eden will reside in Los Angeles. During the period Eden will familiarize himself as far as possible with the duties of his position with the title company in Los Angeles.

1633 ARRESTS MADE BY POLICE IN 1922

Of the 1633 arrests made by the Santa Ana police department during the year of 1922, 189 came in the month of December, according to figures compiled by City Marshal Claude Rogers. Both the total for the year and for the month established new records here, Rogers said.

A total of 546 accidents was reported to the department during the twelve-month period. Rogers' figures disclose that of the 125 automobiles reported stolen in this city last year all but three have been recovered.

CHANGE IN UNDERTAKING FIRM

In the undertaking firm of Mills and Winbiger a change in firm name and ownership is announced with the new year. Ernest N. Winbiger, son of Theo. A. Winbiger, and grandson of Dr. I. D. Mills, who for many years was the senior member of Mills and Winbiger, has taken over the interests of the late Dr. I. D. Mills, and in the future the establishment will be known as "Winbiger's Mission Funeral Home," with ownership vested in Theo. A. and Ernest N. Winbiger, father and son.

In over twenty-five years of service in Santa Ana, the firm of Mills and Winbiger has maintained an enviable reputation as being one of the very leading undertaking establishments in Southern California.

The interests of the firm have always been held within the circles of the family, Theo. A. Winbiger having entered the work with his father-in-law, Dr. I. D. Mills, more than twenty-five years ago. After the death of Dr. Mills, a year ago, his grand-son, Ernest N. Winbiger, having finished his school and army service, purchased the shares of Dr. Mills, and now assumes his full interests in the business and its management.

The advent of Ernest Winbiger into the firm brings with it not only valuable personality but added opportunity to render the public real service at all times and in connection with all branches of their endeavor. He was born in Santa Ana, passed through the local schools, graduated here in the high school class of 1915. He then attended U. S. C. for two years, after which he took a course in Anatomy and Sanitation in a Chicago college. This, together with his years of training and observation under his father, has fully fitted him to assume full interest and participation in the work and affairs of the firm.

Soon after receiving his diploma from the Chicago College of Embalming, he enlisted in the great war and entered training in the ordinance department at Camp Hancock, Georgia. On account of his ability as an embalmer he was asked by the government to take up the work at Camp Hancock for the preparation of the bodies of the soldier dead for transportation to their various homes. This he did, remaining in this work up to the close of the war and rendering this service in the handling of the bodies of hundreds of soldier dead during the influenza epidemic of 1918. In this connection he became interested in ambulance work, and to this department of the Winbiger firm he now gives his especial attention.

In the future as in the past it shall be the earnest endeavor of the firm and those associated with it to render to the public at all times the touch of real personal service and to make the name of "Winbiger" and their "Mission Funeral Home," synonymous with all that is best in their chosen field.

SENTENCE YOUTH IN MEXICO TRIP CASE

Gerald Peabody, 16, Santa Ana youth, was today on his way to the Preston School of Industry, at Lone, to which he was sentenced by Juvenile Court Judge R. Y. Williams.

Peabody was arrested at Tia Juana by San Diego county authorities, who held him under the Mann act, as a result of an alleged joy ride, in which he, E. J. Ahlers and two girls from Santa Ana participated. Ahlers is under arrest here on a serious charge proffered by the father of one of the girls.

According to evidence brought out at Peabody's trial yesterday, the two men and the girls made the trip in a hired automobile, for which Peabody deposited an alleged worthless check.

In attacking one of the girls, Peabody was said to have applied a hot iron until she yielded to his advances, the court was told yesterday.

Peabody and the girl were alleged to have spent the night in Tia Juana, and were arrested at the border, when they attempted to return to the United States. They were held under the federal law, but because of the boy's youth, the government officials asked that the juvenile court dispose of the case.

BANDIT KILLED IN GAS STATION RAID

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 5.—Efforts were being made here today to identify the body of a bandit killed by Deputy Sheriff Ray Conley, following attempt to rob the Crown Stage company office at Santa Fe Springs last night. The body is at the Johnson undertaking parlors, 3339 Whittier boulevard.

The bandit was shot after he had robbed the till of $11 and after he had fired at the deputy sheriff who was waiting for him to make a raid on the place, which is owned and operated by J. O. Robbins. The place is an oil station, with Robbins acting as agent for the Crown stage.

Plans of the bandit were disclosed to two members of the Los Angeles sheriff's prohibition squad, whom he endeavored to have go in with him on the job.

BUILDING PLAN FOR OLD YANK SEAFIGHTER SHOWN HERE

Torn and Yellowed Paper Prepared Century Ago Finds Way to S. A.

NAVY HISTORY TOLD

Gunship Columbus Said to Have Been Third War-craft Authorized

Echoes of the mighty thunder of seafighters which sailed the high seas more than a hundred years ago were heard in Santa Ana today when W. H. Doughty, Orange county resident, displayed a strip of torn and yellowed parchment-like paper, which contained the original construction draught of the Gunship Columbus, said to have been the third battleship authorized by congress.

During the closing months of 1775 much legislation necessary for the organization of the navy was enacted by congress on the recommendation of the naval committee. In the beginning there was strong opposition to all enterprises of a naval character, but it gradually broke down before the arguments of the more far-sighted and reasonable members.

On November 10, the marine corps was established, capture of British ships of war, transports and supply vessels was authorized, and the several colonies were advised to set up prize courts.

War Craft Authorized. It was about this time, according to old records in the possession of Doughty, that William Doughty, an uncle of the Orange county resident's father, was authorized to draw the plans for the Gunship Columbus. A committee of twelve, appointed to devise ways and means for furnishing the colonies with a naval armament, recommended that five ships of thirty-two guns, five of twenty-eight guns, and three of twenty-four guns be fitted for the sea.

Cost of these ships, it was stipulated, was not to be more than $66,666 each, but it was agreed that each vessel was to have two complete suits of sails, the total cost to be $866,666.

From the description of the frigates furnished to Admiral Howe, commanding the British fleet, one may glean some idea of the appearance and dimensions of the American sea fighters. The Hancock is described as follows, beginning with the figurehead:

IRISH REGIMENTAL BAND DIRECTOR IS GIVEN HIGH PRAISE

LT. J. ANDREW WIGGINS,
Director of Irish Regimental Band.

Accorded highest praise wherever the Irish Regimental band has appeared since it entered on its two-year tour of the United States last October, J. Andrew Wiggins, director, is acclaimed as one of the greatest directors in this country.

Bearing the peculiar distinction of belonging to the only Irish regiment in Canada, the 110th, the band, which will appear at the high school auditorium here for both matinee and evening performance Thursday, is said to occupy the same place in Canadian hearts that Sousa's band does in the hearts of this country.

The band carries six soloists of the highest artistry, William Tong and Serf. Everson, cornetists; Edward Hall, flutist; Beatrice O'Leary, soprano; Jean McNaughton, dancer, and Major John Trenholm, piper. Under the able direction of Lieut. Wiggins, the band presents what is described as a "travelling festival of Irish music." Most of the musicians are veterans of the war and while in England in 1918 gave a London concert which attracted much attention.

Dancer Wins. Miss Jean McNaughton is said to be a specialist in folk dances and was winner of the first prize at an Irish hornpipe contest held recently in Chicago, with competitors entered from all sections of the country.

FIGHTS CHARGE OF OTHER MAN IN DIVORCE

Denying the existence of a "doctor at Venice," who would be willing to support her, a fact alleged in the divorce complaint of Thomas Blythel Howard, Huntington Beach, and filing cross complaint of desertion, the wife, Mildred Howard had filed papers in superior court here which indicated that the suit would be hotly contested.

In his original complaint, Howard had asserted that his wife was not in favor of matrimony as a permanent institution.

He alleged that she would like "just to live with a man, so that she could leave him at any time," and that she mentioned the Venice physician as being willing to wed her.

This woman denied in her answer.

In her cross complaint she alleged that Howard left her, while she was in ill health, that a reconciliation followed and that he then left her again.

CITRUS BODIES PLAN ANNUAL MEETINGS

Associations Identified With Great Exchanges Face Excellent Year

Facing what they believe will prove to be an excellent year, insofar as financial returns for the crop are concerned, twenty organizations actively identified with the two great fruit exchanges of Orange county, which return millions of dollars to the growers of the county, today were clearing the decks for the annual meetings to be held at the respective plants in the immediate future.

With indications pointing to a fine yield of valencias, with excellent prices in prospect, and with splendid weather aiding the growth of the valencia crop, L. D. Palmer, manager for the Orange County Fruit exchange, said today that the outlook for 1923 was very encouraging.

"It is too early to make forecasts," said Palmer, "but it is safe to say that, with anything like favorable weather conditions, Orange county again will do itself proud."

Exchange Meets Feb. 1. Of the thirteen members of the Orange County Fruit exchange, virtually all will hold their annual meetings within the next few weeks. Annual election of officers of the exchange proper will be held at Orange February 1. The annual meeting of the Northern Orange County Citrus exchange is scheduled to be held at Fullerton Monday, January 8.

The members of the Orange County Fruit exchange will hold annual meetings as follows:

BE 'GOOD' VILLIAN AIM OF SINGER WHO PLAYS GYPSY QUEEN

"Sinking one's own personality in that of an operatic character is not the easiest thing in the world to do."

Thus declared here today Mrs. G. J. Daley, who will sing the role of the Gypsy Queen in the forthcoming Orange County Choral union production of "The Bohemian Girl."

"Yet I am growing so accustomed to the thought in the opera, of being hated and dreaded by everybody," she continued, "that in the final scene where I am shot and borne from the stage, my acceptance of the state of affairs is so complete I find myself conscious of but the hope that they will carry me out nicely."

Mrs. Daley laughed at her acceptance of the role of stage villainess. It is upon the characterization of the Gypsy Queen and of Devilshoof as played by Robert Brown, that the opera is built, for hated as are the characters depicted, they form the foundation of the composition.

As the queen, Mrs. Daley is given the opportunity to create a fine dramatic role and one which offers excellent opportunity for self-expression despite the fact that the character of the queen is so ignoble.

Role Titled to Voice

"I have to remember that the part is splendidly suited to my voice. In order to derive the keenest pleasure from singing it," said Mrs. Daley.

In remembering the singing and the accompanying disagreeable features of the part. And of course everyone can't play the lovely heroine parts.

To me, the true community spirit which we try to express in the productions, is exemplified

MYSTERY GIRL HEEDS LONELY MAN'S CALL

Two lonesome hearts were reaching out to each other, today, through the office of County Clerk J. M. Backs.

Several days ago a Huntington Beach oil worker asked Backs to assist him in finding a wife. Yesterday, "Miss A. B. C." responded, and announced her willingness to correspond with the beach city man.

"I would not mind writing to him," her letter said, "if everything would be kept confidential. Please let me know through The Register."

So Backs notified "Miss A. B. C." that any letters which she may desire to write to the Huntington Beach man, may be addressed to his office, and will be kept secret.

"Miss A. B. C.'s" letter was well written, the script showing evidence of the refinement and neatness which the lonely bachelor said was an absolute requisite.

Backs emphasized the fact that, to insure absolute secrecy, all missives should be addressed to him, to be forwarded to the other persons.

JOHNSON RESUMES HIS FIRM INTEREST HERE

Having severed his connection with the office of the United States internal revenue collector in Los Angeles, Alvin Johnson has again taken up his connection with the Steed-Johnson company, which has offices in the Orange County Trust and Savings bank here, and which handles an auditing and accounting business, and has also formed a partnership with R. E. Ardery to do an income tax expert business, with offices in Los Angeles. Ardery was formerly division chief in the internal revenue office.

Johnson is in Santa Ana now with the Steed-Johnson company. His time will be divided between Santa Ana and Los Angeles. He said that he expects eventually to return to Santa Ana to live.

POPE APPEAL DENIED. ROME, Jan. 5.—A report that Pope Pius XI would direct an appeal to the United States to assist the economic reconstruction of Europe was denied by the Vatican.

COUNTY CHARTER IS HELD WAY OUT OF TANGLE MADE BY RULING ON EMPLOYES

Curtailment of county employees—or rather of their salaries—which was made necessary under a supreme court ruling that interpreted the 1921 county government act to mean that no county officer could receive additional help during his tenure of office, is rapidly bringing about a crisis, new developments in the situation here disclosed today.

Announcement by County Auditor W. C. Jerome, that at least three employees would probably have to be dropped Monday, which marks the beginning of the official year, and that three or four more would have to be paid by subterfuge, intensified the concern which has been felt here.

Incidentally, Jerome announced his intention of sticking close to the regulations, and honoring no warrants which he did not think were drawn in accordance with the ruling, in the hope that the matter might soon be brought to a crisis and decided.

"The county charter, variously proposed, would, in my opinion, provide the solution to the problem," Jerome said. "The charter would provide the supervisors with the power to make their own appointments and designate the salaries. Briefly, Orange county would be an entity, without the control of the legislature."

A. A. Brock, county horticultural commissioner, is one of the men who may have to be removed in compliance with the new law, Jerome intimated. Brock's appointment is directly parallel to the engineer's department case which was carried to the supreme court. According to the decision at that time, Brock would be ineligible to draw pay from the county.

Board Given Power. According to the system adopted in appointing the horticultural commissioner, the board was given authority to appoint the commissioner, fix his salary, and his tenure of office. This, Jerome declared, is unconstitutional, and is parallel also to the advisory board to the board of supervisors which was abolished.

Mrs. Phoebe Simpson, stenographer and assistant to Herman Zabel, head of the bureau of identification, will probably have to be dismissed, according to Jerome's opinion. Her salary could be construed as being of assistance to the sheriff, and the supreme court decision ruled that no additional assistance could be procured until 1925.

The salary of Zabel himself will be affected, it was learned. Zabel had been receiving $125 a month as a deputy sheriff, in charge of the finger print work. In addition he had been getting $25 a month for photography done in connection with prisoners at the jail.

Raise Deputy's Salary. At a recent meeting of the board of supervisors his salary was raised. The law holds that no employee can hold two positions where the salary is more than $150 a month. Since the increase would raise the salary above this figure, and no increase can be given him as a deputy sheriff, according to Jerome's interpretation, his pay will remain the same.

Apparently, when the ruling was first received here, the motorcycle officers, who are deputy sheriffs,

ONE VOTE WILL GIVE CHARTER MEN VICTORY

Voters of the city will have ten places at which to register Tuesday a yes vote for the election of fifteen freholders to write a charter for Santa Ana.

There will be no "no" vote, for there is no contest and no provision for a person who casts a ballot to register anything more than a favorable vote. In other words, the board will be elected even if apathy on the part of the electorate should result in only one vote for each freholder.

The polls will open at 6 a. m. and close at 7 p. m. The board of freholders is to be composed of fifteen men and only that number has been nominated. A voter may, however, write in the name of any person he would prefer to see on the board.

Ten Polling Places. For convenience and to save election expense, the thirty-six county precincts in the city have been consolidated into ten special precincts.

Election board officers and location of the polling places follow: No. 1—Consolidation of county precincts 1, 2, 3 and 4, intermediate school on North Main street; Frank E. Simpson, inspector; Mit Phillips, J. B. Nichols, judges; Mrs. Bertha Bowers, Lydia A. Smart, W. Frank Harris, clerks.

About Rubbing Alcohol

Rubbing alcohol is grain alcohol to which is added certain substances which make it unfit for internal use but which does not prevent its use externally for every purpose for which pure alcohol formerly was used.

Permits to denature alcohol according to certain prescribed formula are granted to manufacturers by the Prohibition Commissioner.

Some formulae as originally prescribed have not accomplished the purpose for which they were intended. Manufacturers who adopted these faulty formulae now face the necessity of revising their product.

WALL ST. JOURNAL FINANCIAL REVIEW

Failure of Paris Reparations Parley Fails to Move Market

NEW YORK, Jan. 5.—If any doubt lingered in the speculative mind as to the importance attached by the stock market to the Paris proceedings, it was effectually dispelled by price movements in today's session.
Prices were only fractionally lower at the opening.
Before the morning had well advanced, vigorous renewal of the forward movement was in evidence in many sections of the list.
Any real concern over the European situation would have been reflected in sterling, but exchange on London exhibited absolute indifference toward disruption of the premier's conference.
The general list advanced under the leadership of American Can which soared to record levels. Although profit taking cropped out again before the close final prices in most cases were well above Thursday's last figures.
The market closed irregular. Closing prices included:

FREEDOM ASKED FOR YOUTH IN GIRL CASE

Declaring that the preliminary hearing of William Wilson, Orange youth, arrested on serious charges involving an Orange girl and said to have grown out of an incident at a dance in Olive, produced no evidence to show that the crime charged was committed, Defense Attorney Thomas McFadden asked Superior Judge Williams, before whom Wilson was arraigned today, that the information be set aside.
The defense contended that the transcript of the preliminary examination would show only an attempt existed.
Judge Williams continued the arraignment until this afternoon, to permit himself to examine the transcript.

WOMEN JURORS NOT SO EASY TO SWAY

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 5. — Women on trial for murder are losing their prestige with jurors. The old axiom of the criminal law office that juries will not convict such defendants is being exploded. Recently the attitude of jurors toward women slayers has undergone a material change, a tendency to be less lenient being pronounced. Even in those cases where acquittals have been made it has not been with the spontaneity of yore, for hours have been required before the twelve peers could marshal their judgment into common accord.

Less Susceptible to Appeal
The psychology of this change in attitude may be attributed to general causes. Perhaps the strongest is eligibility of women themselves to sit on juries. Lawyers who specialize in practice in the criminal courts have remarked that women jurors are less susceptible to the appeal of one of their own sex in the prisoner's dock.

Old Dodges Useless
In the olden days of one-sex juries a clever and eloquent lawyer could appeal to "twelve good men and true," for the life of a woman on trial, laying stress on the home life fact that each one of them had a mother, possibly sisters and daughters. Such an appeal is of little worth today. For, sitting in the jury box may be a woman who sees farther into the woman heart than even the most astute of criminal defense minds may penetrate, and is able to segregate the chaff of rhetoric from the grains of fact.

New Attitude Shown
Recent cases of the conviction of women murder defendants stand out boldly in exemplification of this new attitude of juries.

Mrs. Mable Champion, 22 years old, physically equipped to make an appeal to a jury of men, handsomely gowned and modestly hatted, recently was found guilty at Cleveland in connection with the slaying of Thomas Connell, Yale man. She made it a point to appear stylishly gowned at her trial every day, changing costumes often, which may not have helped her with some of the women jurors. After twenty-eight hours of deliberation a jury of seven women and five men convicted her and she was sentenced to twenty years in reformatory.

Pearl Beaver Odell was sentenced to twenty years' imprisonment in connection with the slaying of a former sweetheart, her husband having been electrocuted in connection with the same crime.

Mrs. Meda Hodell, 20-year-old swamp country girl, was convicted in Michigan a few days ago of first degree murder in connection with the slaying of her father-in-law. "Peggy" Marie Beal, slayer of Frank Warren Anderson, who styled herself "the avenger of fifty women," whose hearts she says Anderson admitted having broken, recently was acquitted of the charge of murder at Kansas City. So was Mrs. Catherine Rosier of Philadelphia, freed of a charge of killing her husband and his stenographer.

Justice Dealt Equally

But these cases simply emphasize the fact that juries are discriminating, that, in this day of equal rights for the sexes, they are dealing equal justice, that the woman who can show a grievance that society recognizes, though statute law may not, will get the same justice a man would under similar circumstances. The case of Mrs. Ivy Giberson of Lakehurst, N. J., who went on trial charged with having murdered her husband, William F. Giberson, at Toms River, is a case in which the jury struck at the old belief that woman is immune from conviction.

TUSTIN BASKETBALL OUTFITS WIN, LOSE

Boys Team Drops Hard Tilt To Orange; Girls Defeat Garden Grove Squad

Three Tustin high school basketball teams went into action yesterday afternoon as the 1923 season began in earnest in Orange county. The Tustin school annexed one victory to two defeats, but all of the tilts were close and bitterly contested.

The Tustin boys' first team dropped a torrid encounter to Coach H. M. Davis' Orange high school quintet by the score of 33 to 26. The Tustin girls' first team won from Garden Grove high school, 20 to 10, but the lightweights lost to Garden Grove, 9 to 4.

The match between the boys' teams was in doubt until the last few minutes of play. Davis' men shot a couple of baskets and put the affair in the refrigerator. The count was tied fourteen, all at the close of the first half.

Joe Fink was responsible for ten points of the Tustin total. Price starred for Orange with fourteen points to his credit. The teams lined up as follows:

Tustin	Pos.	Orange
Fink	F.	M. Thompson
Prather	F.	Price
Miller	C.	Nichols
Rust	G.	Johnson
Jimenez	G.	Murphy

Substitutions: Tustin—Means for Fink, Kuykendall for Prather, Holbrook for Miller, Crawford for Rust, Kelly for Crawford. Orange—Brubaker for Thompson, Leithews for Price, Spencer for Nichols, and Crawford for Johnson.

Miss Thelma Artz was the Tustin star in the girls' first team fracas. She scored eighteen of her side's points. Miss Birdie Baker with seven points scintillated for Garden Grove. The teams lined up as follows:

Tustin	Pos.	G. Grove
T. Artz	F.	P. Blacholder
M. Stanley	F.	B. Baker
I. Dunham	C.	R. Jones
M. Misset	C.	E. Smith
L. Kelly	G.	B. Hopes
N. Ware	G.	L. Lehnhart

Substitutions: For Garden Grove—Anita Collins for Elsie Smith, Louise Dubois for Laura Lehnhart. The lightweight squads lined up as follows:

Tustin	Pos.	G. Grove
M. Neal	F.	H. Howell
E. Osterman	F.	M. Newman
E. Marple	C.	E. Neusbaum
C. Hurtado	C.	R. Hayhurst

BULLSEYES of BASEBALL

NO. 3: GREATEST ROOKIE PITCHING I EVER SAW

I have seen a number of recruit pitchers work creditable games in their first start as major leaguers. I have seen a great many more "flivver" badly their first time out in the big show. The odds are all ways against the recruit.

Therefore it is a rather easy matter for me to pick out the greatest game I ever saw a recruit pitcher work in the majors. That honor goes to Charles Robertson of the Chicago White Sox, who, in the spring of 1922, shut out the Detroit club without a hit. More remarkable yet, not a baster reached first base.

2 SWIMMING MARKS LOWERED AT CHICAGO

CHICAGO, Jan. 5.—Two world's swimming marks were lowered in the Illinois Athletic club's open tank meet here last night.

Johnny Weissmuller, world's 220 yard free style champion, lowered his own record of 2:18.25 by 4.25 seconds. Weissmuller, pressed to the limit by Oliver Horn of the I. A. C., swam the course in 2:14 flat.

Dick Howell, school boy natator, swimming against Norman Ross, former tank champion of the country, won the 440 yard free style race in the record time of 5:03.45.

PRINCESS' 'GEMS' IN REALITY KEYS

NEW YORK, Jan. 5.—A hotel employee's idea about princesses—among others, that a princess wouldn't trouble herself carrying around anything that wasn't terribly valuable—was advanced today as the explanation for the story, made public yesterday, of how the Princess Xenia, wife of William B. Leeds jr., had lost and found again jewels valued anywhere from $100,000 to $250,000.

Young Leeds, son of the Princess Anastasia of Greece and of the late William B. Leeds, tinsmith king, is authority for the statement that the lost "jewel case" was nothing but a little key case with some common iron keys in it.

The princess left it in an automobile yesterday and was greatly excited until a hotel detective found it again. Of course, in a way, the loss was a serious one to the youthful princess, for the keys were the ones to the array of trunks in which she brought over her treasured finery to flash on a startled new world.

Refuses Long Term Contract to Pilot Boston Tailenders

FRANK CHANCE

No more long-time contracts for Frank Chance.

When he agreed to take charge of the Boston Red Sox, he stipulated the contract was to be for one year only.

Chance fears that his desire to get back into the game may prove to be a mere fancy, and he has no wish to tie up to a longer contract than one year. That will enable him to pass up the national pastime if a whirl at the managerial game proves the sport has lost its lure.

When Chance came back to manage the Yankees, he signed for three years. The contract was binding in many ways. Before the close of the final year of the contract he desired to resign, yet was so tied up that he found it a very difficult matter to break his contract without getting into a lot of unpleasant difficulties.

That is why his contract with Boston calls for only one year. Owner Frazee was desirous of tying Chance up for three years.

SANTA ANA, FULLERTON BASKETBALL MEN CLASH IN FIRST OF LEAGUE ENCOUNTERS

Anxious for a good start in the battle for the basketball supremacy of the Orange league, the Santa Ana and Fullerton high school teams this afternoon were battling on the Fullerton court in the first game of the season for either aggregation.

At the same time, Anaheim was to face Whittier on the Post's stamping ground in section one of the league.

The Tustin-Huntington Beach and the San Juan Capistrano-Garden Grove contests in sections two of the league were today postponed until next Friday afternoon by agreement between the coaches of the four schools. All of the mentors were of the opinion that the teams had not had enough practice as yet to engage in any league affairs.

The Santa Ana-Fullerton encounter was to begin at 3:15 o'clock. The men were to play on the Fullerton outdoor court in accordance with Orange league regulations.

Coach Marvin ("Spud") Morrison announced that he would start the following men against Glenn Lewis' organization: Luck and Bowe, forwards; Lacy, center; Howell and Middlebrook, guards.

The Poly hoop mentor took virtually all of the twenty men on his first string squad to the north county city and planned to give many of them a chance to display their wares.

Four of the men Poly's casaba tossers were to face played with "Shorty" Smith's grid team during the past season, it was learned here when Coach Lewis announced the Fullerton lineup.

Arroues and Hazmalhalch were to be at forwards, and Shipkey and Carpenter at guards. Kramer was billed to open up at center. The Fullerton reserve list included Hill, Weeks, Healy, Gregory, Lemke and Oswald.

Despite a late start due to poor weather at the close of school before the Christmas vacation period, Morrison's men were expected to make it a real battle, as they have showed flashes of class in the few workouts this season.

All of the men doped to start had a certain amount of experience with the second or weight fives last winter. Bove, forward, is the only real veteran on the squad.

If Poly could spill the dope and defeat Fullerton local basketball fans figured it would have little difficulty in annexing the county league title as Lewis' men, composed of three letter men and two last year's substitutes, are rated as the strongest appearing outfit in the circuit.

LOSS OF FULLERTON BOY RUINS CARDS'
HOPES FOR INTERCOLLEGIATE TRACK WIN

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 5.—Anbig trophy on the coast. His ten points for first places in the shot and discus will go elsewhere, perhaps to eastern teams, which may prevent the third successive triumph for coast athletes.

Templeton was not over-estimating the value of his extinguished stars when he declared that the loss of Hartnaff, Clarke and Smith would cost Stanford 25 points in the California meet.

California has lost Jack Merchant, last year's outstanding point scorer in the eastern meet, but "Brick" Muller is expected to carry the brunt of the point scoring in the field events this year. Jack Witter and a few others are left and it is rumored that Don Nichols will be seen on the track this year.

Don is a much better than average broad jumper and only missed making the last Olympic team by an eyelash. The Golden Bears are still formidable.

Stanford is not the only loser, for the Cardinal team has again planned a jaunt to Harvard for another attempt to capture the national intercollegiate championship. Hartnaff, one of the most valuable point winners of last year's team, James noonday lunches.

THE MISLEADING "HALF-TRUTH"

Inspectors and others, interested in boosting GAS-FUMIGATION, say: "The Charters-Davis Fruit Co., Corona, have gone back to fumigation." The "Whole-truth" is—on very bad infestations, fearing they've missed a few twigs, they sometimes give the trees a "shot of gas" with the hope of getting a complete quick clean up. Once done, they say—"One proper application of FUMI-SPRAY, yearly, should keep the trees clear of ALL INSECT PESTS."

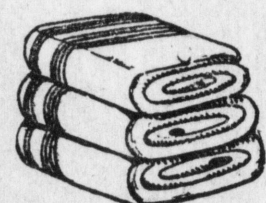

Another inexcusable deceit, is: cutting groves like Rouse's, Ragan's, Dunnack's, etc., sprayed 40 to 1, only. 25 to 1 is the proper dilution to kill Red and purple scale, eggs and all, in all stages. It does it!

Be not deceived! Inspect for yourself, after 10 weeks, any grove properly Fumi-sprayed, compare with gas fumigation along side. Play fair fellows! The lighting will be easier when you fail.

Junior College Offers Courses of High Value

(In order that it may be better understood that in the Junior College, Santa Ana has an exceptional educational institution, a series of articles is being published by The Register telling of various departments of the college.)

SOCIAL SCIENCE DEPARTMENT.

The Social Science Department is the name given to all those courses that have a direct bearing on our social existence such as the study of politics, government, economics and history.

The courses offered this semester in this department are sociology by E. M. Mealey, English history by Miss Jennie Lasby, modern history by L. L. Beeman, economics by Miss Isabel Anderson, and elementary law by E. T. Worthing.

L. L. Beeman, head of the History department of high school and teacher of modern history in the Junior college, has been teaching school since 1897. He has taught every grade from the first to the fourteenth. At his first school he was principal and taught sixteen classes.

He has a Bachelor Degree from the Indiana University, where he was an orator of note as well as a student of history and the social sciences. Among the schools where he taught are Centerville, Ind., Kokomo, Ind., Anderson, Ind., and San Bernardino. In this latter place he was principal for eleven years. He came to Santa Ana in the fall of 1920.

Mr. Beeman is a scholar of rare ability, very progressive and very practical. A good social science teacher must be at all times fair minded, for otherwise he would give his students prejudiced ideas. Mr. Beeman's pupils all agree that he gives them a good unbiased discussion on every problem.

Mr. Beeman is teaching a course on History of Modern Europe that is mostly lectures with outside reading, reports and term papers for the students to do.

Miss Jennie Lasby. Miss Lasby, who teaches astronomy, English History and History of Science has lived in many places and done many things. Her students have the benefit of her wide experiences.

She did her academic work at Carleton college, where she was elected to the Phi Beta Kappa society, and took her master degree from Mt. Holyoke. She was given a fellowship in psychology at the University of Chicago, but decided instead to pursue her scientific studies.

For some years she did research work at the Mt. Wilson observatory. While there she published, in connection with W. S. Adams, an exhaustive account of solar rotation. She also did original work on the radial velocity of stars and the effect of pressure on the lines of the spectrum.

In April, 1914, she went to Europe to take a position in the royal observatory at Potsdam, Germany. This work was, of course, interrupted by the war. Her scientific work was continued, however, at the Goodsell observatory, where she specialized on asteroid positions.

Before returning to this country after the outbreak of the war, Miss Lasby was engaged in war work in London. Returning to America, she continued to do war work, this time working with the committee of public safety.

Before coming to Santa Ana Miss Lasby had taught for two years at Mt. Holyoke college, and one at Carleton. She has been connected with the Santa Ana Junior college for three years.

Work Brings Honors. Miss Lasby has had her scientific work recognized by being invited to join the scientific staff of the Smithsonian Institution; by being elected a member of the American Astronomical association, and by being included in "Men of Science," a compilation devoted to the men, and very few of the women, who have done original work in science. She contributes occasional articles to "Popular Science" and "Nature."

"Miss Lasby stores our minds with facts and theories while we are in her classes. After we leave her we realize she gave us far more than mere class instruction, excellent though it was. She has broadened our outlook, deepened our experience, made us bigger and better for having known her. To her, gratefully and affectionately, we dedicate this book."

Such was the dedication of last year's Junior College Annual, and it expresses the attitude of Miss Lasby's students toward her.

Miss Anderson. Miss Isabel Anderson, daughter of Senator and Mrs. J. N. Anderson, occupies a unique position on the faculty, in that she is a graduate of the college as a member of the first graduating class in June, 1917.

While attending the Santa Ana city schools she was a leader in all lines of school life. She was on the debating team, the basketball and tennis team. In 1915 she was on the Southern California Girls' double tennis championship team.

Miss Anderson attended the University of California from 1917 to 1920, receiving the A. B. degree and a teacher's certificate. Her major study was political science and history with jurisprudence as a minor.

While at U. C. she received many high honors and belonged to many clubs. She was girls' tennis captain for two years, thus showing her athletic prowess, and in scholarship she rated very high, being a member of Phi Beta Kappa, the national honorary scholarship society.

Miss Anderson came to the Santa Ana Junior college in the fall of 1920 as instructor in economics and debating work. Last year she taught economics and political science.

Teaching is not the only thing she does for she is a good executive and always has plenty of good ideas and as a result she has many special duties. She is girls' league advisor and has charge of the college Y. W. C. A. She is usually found on all committees having special problems to solve.

This year Miss Anderson teaches economics in the college. There are forty-five in the class which meets three times a week. There are two lectures a week and one recitation period. The aim of this course is to introduce the field of economics to the students. Current problems, such as capital, labor, money and banking, etc., are taken up and discussed.

GAS IN THE STOMACH IS DANGEROUS

Recommends Daily Use of Magnesia To Overcome Troubles Caused by Fermenting Food and Acid Indigestion

Gas and wind in the stomach accompanied by that full, bloated feeling after eating are almost certain evidence of the presence of excessive hydrochloric acid in the stomach, creating so-called "acid indigestion." Acid stomachs are dangerous because too much acid irritates the delicate lining of the stomach, often leading to gastritis accompanied by serious stomach ulcers. Food ferments and sours, creating the distressing gas which distends the stomach and hampers the normal functions of the vital internal organs, often affecting the heart.

It is the worst of folly to neglect such a serious condition or to treat with ordinary digestive aids which have no neutralizing effect on the stomach acids. Instead get from any druggist a few ounces of Bisulphate of Magnesia and take a teaspoonful in a quarter glass of water right after eating. This will drive the gas, wind and bloated right out of the body, sweep the stomach, neutralize the excess acid and prevent its formation, and there is no sourness or pain. Bisulphate of Magnesia (in powder or tablet form—never liquid or milk) is harmless to the stomach, inexpensive to take and the best form of magnesia for stomach purposes. It is used by thousands of people who enjoy their meals with no more fear of indigestion—adv.

SUDDEN DEATH OF MRS. HOFFMAN APPALS

PLACENTIA, Jan. 5.—The sudden death of Mrs. Charles E. Hoffman from acute heart trouble, Monday at midnight, came as a shock to her friends and acquaintances here. A short funeral service was held at McAuley's funeral parlors, Fullerton, Wednesday afternoon. Rev. W. H. Manshardt of the Placentia Presbyterian church officiated.

Mr. Hoffman left with the body for their old home in Claremont, N. H., where Mrs. Hoffman's relatives reside and where burial will be made.

Mrs. Hoffman was born in Unity, N. H., in 1870 and came to California about eight years ago, since which time Mr. Hoffman has been superintendent of the Placentia water works. Mrs. Hoffman's mother, Mrs. Harriet Lewis and two sisters, the Misses Emily and Nellie Lewis, survive. They are well known here, having visited at the Hoffman home frequently.

Mrs. Hoffman had been in her usual health and during the day she and her husband visited friends at Charter Oak and Whittier. At 9 o'clock she went out and posted a letter. About 11 o'clock they retired, and at midnight Mr. Hoffman was awakened by hearing his wife gasping for breath. He hurriedly called the neighbors and Dr. Petty, but she died before the doctor could arrive from less than a block away.

CHARTER ASKED FOR POST OF LEGION

TALBERT

LA HABRA, Jan. 5.—As a result of the meeting of the La Habra executive men at the social hall Thursday night, held for the purpose of organizing a local post of the American Legion, application for a charter has been sent to headquarters, and a meeting will be called upon receipt of the charter, for election of officers and for making plans for the future of the organization.

The names which appeared on the application are those of G. W. Wells, G. C. Beer, C. W. Froom, W. E. Spearman, A. J. Wilson, E. S. Davis, J. C. Lumsden, H. I. Morris, D. C. Prigmore, Harold H. Peabody, William W. Smith, H. O. Price, R. M. Davis, William Obrien, and L. H. Stewart.

All preliminary arrangements were made at the Thursday night meeting and 25 charter members were taken in. Five more names had been added to this number yesterday and it is expected that there will be many more applicants, as interest is steadily increasing. Officers in charge were G. W. Wells, chairman; G. C. Beer, secretary; C. W. Froom, treasurer.

It is to be the policy of the post to solicit only the moral support of the business people of the community, the organization to be financed wholly by the membership by putting on dances and entertainments of various kinds and by developing inside talent. The post is to be entirely self-supporting in this way, and no financing will be expected from the outside.

Enthusiasm has been aroused toward the starting of a women's auxiliary, which will be a great benefit to the legion in a social way. The matter of forming the auxiliary will be taken up at the next meeting.

Many of those interested in the formation of a post here are oil well boys who are taking a very active part. All Red Cross nurses are eligible to join. Application blanks may be obtained from Charles Lumsden.

UP COUNTY BRIEFS

FULLERTON, Jan. 5.—The city clerk has been instructed by the trustees to advertise for the sale of the Fullerton $75,000 sewer bonds which represents this city's portion in the cost of the outfall sewer from Santa Ana to the ocean. The bonds are to carry a rate not to exceed five per cent.

H. P. Lilley of this city was awarded the contract for putting in curb, sidewalk and driveway in that section bordering the new California hotel. Two bids were received for this job and opened by the city trustees last night. Lilley's bid was 17 cents per square foot for sidewalk, 45 cents per lineal foot for curb, $25 for each standard driveway to be 12 feet wide and six inches thick and $40 for each drainage culvert.

Despite the fact that reports had been circulated telling of various committees that were preparing to descend on the trustees and demand the reinstatement of former Police Officer Barnhill, no such action was taken and the appointment of E. R. Rudy as Barnhill's successor by Marshal Eells was confirmed by the board.

Local high school pupils who attend the schools of Huntington Beach and Santa Ana resumed their studies with the opening of school Tuesday.

R. H. Obarr, daughter, Loraine, and sons, Wilfred and Vernon, and their grandmother, Mrs. Darby, of Santa Ana, were supper guests on New Year's eve of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Talbert.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Talbert had as visitors at their home Tuesday Mrs. Talbert's sister, Mrs. John Pettitt of Whittier, and her daughter, Mrs. W. A. Perrin and her small son, Junior, of Glendale, and Mrs. Perrin, Sr., of New York, who has just arrived in California and will make her home at Fresno.

Mrs. Williamson of this place and Mr. Talbert's brother-in-law, Joe Miller of Huntington Beach, were also dinner guests at the Talbert home.

"Korea" was the topic taken up last Sunday evening by the League members at the local M. E. church, South, and a most interesting service resulted. R. H. Obarr of Santa Ana was present and brought out many interesting facts on the subject. On Friday evening the League prayer meeting is to be held at the church and all the League officers are requested to be present as a business session is to follow the prayer meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Carter of Long Beach, sister and brother-in-law of Mrs. S. E. Talbert, visited her on New Year's day and with them were their son, Earl Carter, and his wife also of Long Beach. In the evening Mr. and Mrs. T. Vincent and little daughter, Dorothy, of Huntington Beach, spent the evening at the Talbert home and were dinner guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Lanarum and daughter arrived Saturday from Missouri to make their home in this section. The family are for the present staying with Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred who are former neighbors.

Mrs. Dave Jessee and son Earl Jessee arrived home Sunday from Blythe where they spent two weeks with the farmer's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Aater and family. Mrs. Aater, who was just able to be up following a lengthy attack of the "flu" suffered a severe attack with her heart on Christmas night and was out for the first time following last Saturday. Leroy Aater, the oldest son who is to graduate from high school in June, is taking a special study course from a radio expert and in July will take a government examination for service on a submarine as radio operator.

The Aaters continue to do nicely with their ranch and dairy but plan to dispose of their property in that section with in a year as the climate there does not seem to agree with any of the family. They will then return here to make their home, familiar scenes and old friends drawing them back to Orange county. Mrs. Jessee and Earl took dinner in Santa Ana Sunday with William Jessee and wife upon their arrival by train and they brought them home later.

Mrs. J. O. Harper, daughter, Miss Ruth, son Frank, and brother-in-law, Frank Pierce motored to Pasadena New Year's day to attend the Tournament of Roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ward were guests Sunday of Mrs. Ward's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dismukes, of Santa Ana, at a turkey dinner given at their home. The hosts had just arrived from the northern part of the state where they have been visiting relatives.

The story by G. B. Lanchester, a widely read novel, pictures French, and the natives of the South Seas, and the leading woman, Louis Lorraine, interprets her role as a French girl unusually well because she is half French and half Spanish.

SHIRLEY MASON FILM COMING TO YOST SUNDAY.

Shirley Mason will be seen at the Yost theater for a one-day engagement in her latest starring vehicle, "Youth Must Have Love." Miss Mason's latest production is based on the story of a young man unjustly accused of the murder of an old miser, who had gained wealth and position through the unfortunate circumstances of others.

How Earl Stannard, the young man, is vindicated through the never failing faith and untiring aid of a girl provides a romance of intrigue and adventure that promises to surpass all of Miss Mason's previous pictures for exceptional entertainment.

The story carries the audience through a series of unusual incidents and dramatic sequences to a powerful climax.

MARY PICKFORD AS "TESS" AGAIN AT TEMPLE.

Devotees to the cinema art are going to have the opportunity of seeing "Tess of the Storm Country" again tonight at the Temple theater when the film opens an engagement there.

This was the picture in which Mary Pickford scored one of those earlier big screen triumphs, which insured her immortal fame and inspired the populace of the whole country to proclaim her "America's Sweetheart." That was just eight years ago, for this epochal photoplay had its inning in 1914.

Now, in this 1922, in her new "Tess of the Storm Country," Mary Pickford will be seen for a second time in an elaborated version of Grace Miller White's celebrated story. The "Queen of the Screen" re-created this lovable character before the camera at the Pickford-Pairbanks studio at Hollywood and this notable revival is now being presented internationally.

Although this particular story served to carry Miss Pickford to the foremost ranks of favorites among photoplayers, she had earned her rights to real stardom before its presentation. In fact, she attracted wide attention when she made her debut on the speaking stage at the age of five years.

During the last year Miss Pickford has received thousands of requests from admirers to re-enact the beloved character of Tess.

The version of 1914 was in five reels and it was played until all the "prints" were worn out. Now, with the improvements made in the film-making industry, it will be possible to preserve the new conception so that it may entertain generations of the distant future.

DECISION EXPECTED IN ROSENBLUTH CASE

Attorneys for Robert Rosenbluth, former army captain, whose extradition to the state of Washington is sought by federal authorities on an indictment charging responsibility for the killing of Major Alexander Cronkhite at Camp Lewis, Wash., in October, 1918, have renewed their objection to his removal on the ground that the military camp was not in the government's possession at the time of the shooting.

Arguments were not completed today, and United States Commissioner Hitchcock continued the case until tomorrow before rendering his decision.

EVENING SALUTATION

ART is much, but love is more. Art symbolizes heaven, but love is more, and makes heaven.
—Elizabeth Barrett Browning.

PROPOSALS ARE MERITORIOUS

It costs money to expand a business. A city that is growing has certain expenses to meet, and the more rapidly a city grows the higher the expenses are likely to be.

This paragraph is preliminary to saying that no one need be surprised because the board of city trustees here has decided to ask for the bonding of the city to provide money with which to put in some needed improvements. If Santa Ana were standing still it would not need the improvements. But we are not standing still; we don't desire to stand still; we don't propose to stand still.

The proposals to be submitted by the city board are meritorious. After considering the situation carefully The Register has concluded that the proposed bonds for water extension, for additional fire protection and for paving West Fifth street ought to be passed. The policy of the city that requires city water mains and connections to be laid before a street can be paved ought to be upheld. It is only by strict adherence to the policy that we can prevent good paved streets from being broken up when connections are needed. Santa Ana has much street paving to be done this year, and unless there is water pipe on hand to lay in the streets, paving will be held back. The providing of pipe for replacing old water mains is another item considered in the plans for the water department development.

Just as Santa Ana some years ago found that it had outgrown its horse-drawn fire wagon, so today it finds that it has outgrown its fire alarm system and its one-house fire department equipment. The men who are intrusted with guarding this city against losses by fire say that certain things are needed and needed badly in order to give this city fire protection it ought to have and that its citizens have a right to expect. What they say ought to be listened to with a great deal of respect and attention. Their proposition, just like fire insurance, is a business proposition.

Concerning the paving of West Fifth street, there seems to be no question on anybody's part that it ought to be paved. It should have been paved long ago. The Register believes it only fair that the city pay a share of the expense of the work.

According to the papers, Schwab "foresees gain in business in 1923." And when it comes to gain in business, Schwab ought to know.

CREDIT FOR CAFETERIA

So much has been written and taught on the subject of dietetics that it is impossible to credit any single medium with the development of more sensible eating habits in this country. Yet it is possible, as one physician points out, that the cafeteria has helped considerably in this regard.

In ante-cafeteria days that portion of the public which had to eat often at public restaurants used to order somewhat set and inflexible repasts. Individuals fell into stupid food habits and blamed restaurant cooking for their lack of interest in their dishes or for their own indigestion and discomfort.

Then along came the cafeteria with the eatables themselves arranged in a bewildering series in plain view of prospective diners. Patrons selected various dishes, as the wandering eye spied them and was tempted. Perhaps they got more than they needed at first, and frequently meals were no better balanced than the old kind ordered from monotonous menu cards. But there was variety in vegetables, meats, fruits and salads.

The result was natural enough, explains the physician. People began to feel better, to think about the dishes they bought and to figure out new and healthful food combinations.

There are plenty of good arguments for not giving Christmas presents, but the people who are influenced by them are not the ones who enjoy Christmas the most.

THE POISON TRAFFIC

There were a few deaths from poisonous alcoholic drinks during the holiday season, but not nearly so many as last year. There were enough, however, to rouse a demand for the infliction of the death penalty upon persons convicted of selling liquor compounded with wood alcohol or other poisons.

The trouble with this suggestion is that it does not go to the root of the trouble. Many people who concoct and sell the deadly drinks are too ignorant to know what they are doing. A better way to protect the imbibers would be to control the sale of wood alcohol, or other alcohol so treated as to be poisonous, just as the sales of other deadly poisons are controlled. If every such transaction involved a license for the dealer and registration for the buyer, including declaration of purpose, the "hooch makers" would have more difficulty in obtaining these dangerous ingredients to mix with their other materials. As long as any purchaser can obtain poison alcohol in quantity without restraint or question, its incorporation into beverages will go on. And the safe thing to do, of course, is to let bootleg stuff alone.

No wonder American sympathy for Europe's debt problem is increasing. Every American, along about this time of year, knows just how it feels.

FARMS FOR CHILDREN

Last summer 1603 city children from New York's congested districts were given outings on Life's fresh air farms. Every child had two full weeks of country life, fresh air and respite from city noise and dirt and heat. The cost per child was only $10.09. During the whole period, for the whole crowd, there was no sickness and no accident. Every child went back to the city in better condition than he left it and better fitted to continue his fight for life against the city's heat and congestion. Next summer still another farm—100 acres, with hills, good soil, abundance of pure water and a stream well adapted for safe wading and swimming—will be opened for this joy and health giving business.

The growth of the Life Fresh Air Fund work from a small beginning to its present proportions shows what can be done where human interest is enlisted and employed effectively. There are many communities outside of the metropolis, and far smaller, where there are little, poor children who need just such an opportunity to romp in the country. The fresh air camps maintained by charitable organizations and the municipally owned playgrounds are helping to meet their need.

Such reports as that from the Life farms serve as added inspiration to the big-hearted folk who are already backing these movements, and enlist the interest of others.

TAKE AUTO CAMP NOTES

The Chamber of Commerce has issued a call for investment in auto camp notes.

"Every member should strain a point to invest in one or more of these notes to finance this fine enterprise of the chamber that is doing so much for your benefit and for the benefit of Santa Ana," says a statement issued today by the Chamber of Commerce.

No one has any doubt about the success of the auto park. Its benefits are self-evident. Entirely apart from the fact that a good auto camp is a good introduction for a city to those who use it, is the fact that it is a place to which travelling automobilists may go instead of camping here, there and everywhere on vacant lots all over the city.

The Chamber of Commerce is offering 200 notes of $100 each, due on or before ten years, bearing six per cent interest, secured by a mortgage on the auto park property as well as by the financial resources of the Santa Ana Chamber of Commerce.

It is desired that these notes be sold voluntarily. That is, you are requested to go to the Chamber of Commerce and make your investment instead of waiting for someone to come around to you and ask you to join in the enterprise. That's fair enough.

If further elucidation of this matter seems necessary, one may read the statement of Charles F. Smith, former president of the Chamber of Commerce. He says:

Do you realize that you are part owner of the best equipped auto camp in the West? Visitors say that we have home comforts and conveniences that they do not find in any other camp. If you have not visited it, take a look in and see for yourself. You have neglected a duty and missed a privilege that will give you a very pleasant surprise.

During the month of November, 223 autos, containing 561 passengers, from nearly every state in the Union and Canada, visited the park. Since the opening on May 20th last, 1886 cars with 5975 passengers have been registered. The number increases monthly, even at this time when travel should be falling off. Many visitors remain several days, some for weeks, and a large number have rented or bought homes and become permanent residents of Santa Ana. All this has been done with but little advertising, has been a paying investment from the beginning, and every month shows a greater margin of profit. Can you estimate the value of this enterprise to you and to Santa Ana?

Now for a little history and a few figures. The tract of seven and two-thirds acres was bought of the Pacific Electric Land Co. About one-third of it is in Santiago Creek bed, and will always be a valuable source of revenue from the sale of gravel that comes down with every flood. The balance of the tract, about five acres, is all available for camping purposes, but has been greatly improved and increased in value by utilizing the old material when North Main street was repaved. It can and will be improved further with similar material when it can be obtained. The main buildings were constructed with labor and materials furnished at cost by home people. The six cabins were donated by the Auto Club of Orange County, Elks, Rotary, Kiwanis and Lions clubs. Two small parcels of land were donated by P. H. Norton and Mrs. Lucy Cowan.

The sewer, water, gas and electric light were all put into the grounds without cost to us. Much valuable service has been performed by many citizens without compensation.

Hits the Nail On the Head

Sacramento Bee.

A truly progressive and much-needed measure is Senator Hiram W. Johnson's bill requiring that any interstate railroad company, before declaring a dividend, must satisfy the interstate commerce commission that its equipment in all respects is sufficient to meet all reasonable requirements of the public it serves.

This is designed to prevent recurrence of such a great scarcity of refrigerator cars as caused losses to producers last year, in California and other states, to the extent of hundreds of millions of dollars.

It is notorious that because of inability to obtain such cars, many growers of fruit or other products were compelled to allow valuable crops to remain unharvested, or to spoil while awaiting opportunity for shipment.

And the most direct and effective preventive of such failures of transportation is to make the railroads responsible in such a way as the Johnson bill provides.

As the senator well says, dividends are profits. And railroads that fail in their obligations to the public should not be permitted to profit by so doing, and to distribute dividends which in reality are unearned.

Welcoming the Tourist

Riverside Press

Some jealous neighbors of Southern California like to refer to the alleged fact that "the tourist crop is the biggest crop of Southern California." Facts and figures on the marvelous production of the Southland furnish refutation for this statement, if any were needed; but we are still willing to admit that the tourists—people coming from north and south and remote east—have made Southern California what it is today, and that this region owes a tremendous debt of gratitude to its new settlers.

And we are bidding for more tourists, more home seekers, more investors. We feel that we have something to offer them that is unique and distinctive and alluring.

And would it not be well, since we are preparing to make a special drive advertising Riverside city and county, to plan just a little for the reception of the newcomers? California hospitality has ever been warm and generous and spontaneous. But even the best of efforts need competent direction. Riverside's population to a man is backing the chamber of commerce drive in advertising Riverside city and county. It is confidently believed that many new residents will be secured by this increased activity. And once they are here, will not Riverside generally make a special effort to make them welcome, to make them feel that they are wanted here and that there is a part for them in the community life and activities. The churches, clubs and societies can have a part in this welcoming endeavor. It would be a courtesy that would redound greatly to our honor and would be productive of far-reaching results.

Pasadena has committed itself to a form of "saying it with flowers." This plan calls for residents to meet trains with armfuls of flowers whenever they greet friends on incoming trains, and this plan might be extended materially. It is important that the right idea in this regard. What's the matter with Riverside "saying it with oranges?"

The Relapse

Resolutions for 1923

"What should be America's foremost resolution for 1923?" The question was put to a number of well known Americans. Some of their answers follow:

HUBERT WORK, postmaster general: That there shall be in America during the new year less selfishness and more co-operation, less repression and more freedom, more "we can do it" and less "it can't be done."

M. L. BURTON, president of the University of Michigan: America, if she is to realize on her invested hopes and aspirations, must be world-minded. As we approach a new year, we must resolve anew to do our part in solving the problems of civilization. If practical leadership does not find expression in America, where may we turn with hope?

JOHN BARTON PAYNE, lawyer, chairman of the American Red Cross: To study and understand American institutions, what they are and why they were brought into being, and how completely they solve our present problems if rightly understood and sympathetically but thoroughly observed.

DR. RAY LYMAN WILBUR, president of Leland Stanford University: To play a man's full part in international relations.

ROY A. HAYNES, federal prohibition commissioner: As a nation we should solemnly resolve that we will not knowingly violate any of the laws of the land that we will hold sacred the Constitution of our country. We should covenant with ourselves that we will not encourage others to disregard our laws, even though it be by remaining silent when our laws are violated. We should pledge ourselves not alone to law observance, but also to the aim and purpose of Militant Americanism, which devotes its best effort to prevent lawlessness, to promote reverence for law and to create an abiding devotion to the free institutions of our Beloved Republic.

WILLIAM A. SUNDAY, evangelist: America should resolve to return to the faith of our fathers, to put His word into every heart, home and school; to swear respect for law and order, a new loyalty to the constitution and uncompromising antagonism to every man and thing opposed to the flag.

Worth While Verse

SAY NOT

Say not, the struggle naught availeth,
The labor and the wounds are vain.
The enemy faints not, nor faileth,
And as things have been they remain.

If hopes were dupes, fears may be liars;
It may be, in yon smoke concealed,
Your comrades chase e'en now the fliers,
And, but for you possess the field.

For while the tired waves, vainly breaking,
Seem here no painful inch to gain,
Far back, through creeks and inlets making,
Comes silent, flooding in, the main.

And not by eastern windows only,
When daylight comes, comes in the light,
In front the sun climbs slow, how slowly,
But westward look! the land is bright.

Mrs. Hews was coming to see me this afternoon and ma was dusting the dust off the parlor furniture and different things, saying to me, Benny, look at your hands.

Meaning the dirt on them, and I sed, G, they aint so bad, ma, you awt to see Puds Simkin's hands sometimes.

If there's any worse than yours I'd rather not see them, ma sed. You run upstairs immediately and scrub them before Mrs. Hews gets here. Wat do you suppose she'd think if she saw your hands like that?

Maybe she'd jest think that was the natural color of them, I sed, and she sed, Did I tell you to do something or did I not?

Yes mam, I sed, And I went up in the bath room and washed them with lots of soap and a pritty good deal of water and came down and showed them to ma and she sed, Well, thats more like it, I havent seen your hands as clean as that for months, I dont see how I ever reckonzized you.

You must of knew me by my face, I sed, and ma sed, I suppose so, you better go up and wash that too.

Aw G, ma, theres no use being too clean, I sed, and she sed, If a things worth doing its worth doing well. And I went up and washed my face and came down and showed it to ma and she sed, Now you look civilized and respectable and jest to show you it pays to be clean you can have those 3 cents change on the mantel peec.

Wich I took them thinking, G, hurray. And Mrs. Hews came and went agen without saying weather she thawt I looked cleaner than usual or not, ma went up stairs and called down, Benny, come up heer immediately. Wich I did and she sed, Give me back those 3 cents, look at these towels, wats the use of having running water and modern conveniences like that wen you delibrately go and run all the dirt off on the clean towels. And wat was the idee of deriving 3 diffrent towels wen one would of bin bad enuff? she sed.

I wanted to kind of spred it, I sed, and she sed, O keep quiet and give me back those 3 cents, that makes jest one for each towel.

Wich I did, proving the longer you keep money the more libel you are to lose it agen.

Forest

Trees are as queer in their habits of growth as are the people of the various races who inhabit the world. Some trees no best in the icy northland. They become weak and die when brought to warm climates, says the School Book of Forestry of the American Tree association. Others that are accustomed to tropical weather fail to make further growth when exposed to extreme cold. The appearance of Jack Frost means death to most of the trees that come from near the equator.

Some Odds and Ends

EYE

Explosion of fireworks blinded Alfred Lemniewicz nine years ago, Dr. Edward Morgan, eye specialist, thinks he can transfer a pig's eye to young Alfred, restoring the lost sight. He'll try it. Dr. Morgan claims that 20 years ago he performed the same operation on a woman, who regained her vision for three years, then the pig's eye went blind.

Maybe you think this impossible. And maybe you're right. The important thing is that someone is attempting the apparently impossible. That's what is responsible for all progress. The possible always seems impossible—until the courageous and curious try it.

CORN

Important news to you: The 1922 corn crop exceeds 2890 million bushels. This is smaller than in the last two years, but it's a good normal crop. Why important? Because corn is our greatest grain crop. We depend on it for a large part of our food supply.

Only a tenth of our corn is used directly as food. Eighty-five out of every 100 bushels are fed to animals that furnish our meat and milk and help us work. A good crop is always more important news than such things as big auto production or output of steel.

BILLIONS

Farmers in the last nine years have raised corn crops worth 22 billion dollars. Roughly, this matches our national debt.

If you are familiar with the gigantic corn-growing industry of the great Middle West, and the tremendous amount of human labor and patience required to raise this important crop, you will never speak of the national debt as if it were a mere bag of shells, and canceling Europe's share a trifling matter. Remember, the national debt is a mortgage on nine years' work of all corn-growers in America.

SPEEDING

The post office has installed speed regulators on nearly 5000 of its trucks. These gear down the machines to keep them within local speed ordinances.

Eventually, to curb speed maniacs, this may have to be done to all autos before they leave the factory.

When the speed limit is reached the regulators automatically shut off the flow of gasoline.

GENIUS

A Spaniard who, at 40, has written 40 plays and had them all produced, will soon have nine of his plays published in our country. His name is Martinez Sierra.

He also has translated and adapted 47 plays from other languages and has written 30 volumes of poems and five of fiction.

In idle moments he has edited a library of the world's classics translated into Spanish, and runs a high-brow magazine, edits a publishing house and manages the theater in Madrid that features his own plays.

What does he do with his spare time?

Jokes

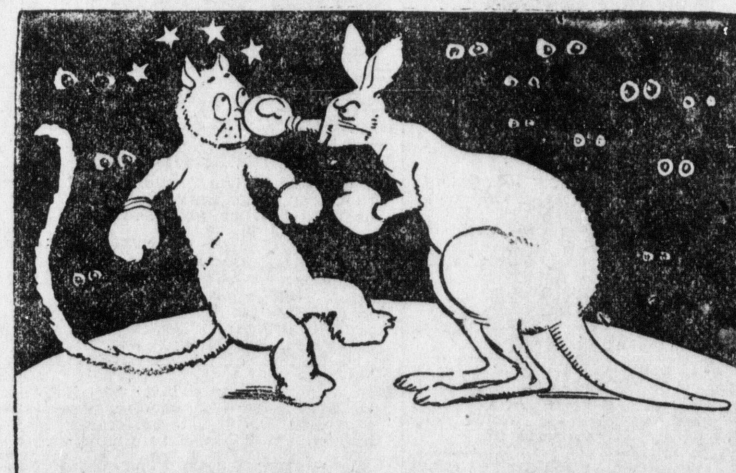

More humorists. That's what the world needs most, says Edgar Jepson, English psychologist. He thinks joking is at a low ebb.

Naturally. The world is depressed, moaning in self-pity. Levity requires light spirits. Then

Adventures of the Twins

Jackie in Dreamland

By Olive Roberts Barton

Little Jackie Jumping Mouse was snoring. He still had on the little red jacket the Brownies had given him and over him were the warm covers that Nancy and Nick had tucked around him when they went with Dusty Coat, the dwarf sandman, to make Jackie comfortable for the winter.

His house was away under the ground in a nice warm place where Jack Frost couldn't reach him.

Jackie Mouse snored again and dreamed that he was a kangaroo in a circus and he was very happy.

Suddenly a little trap door under his bed sprang open and the little mouse fell through it like a ripe plum—or more like a ball of yarn out of a sewing basket, his tail trailing after him like a long raveling.

He whizzed around and around, all the time sliding downward through a place like a coal chute, and after a while he landed on something hard. But he wasn't hurt a bit and sprang up like a bed spring.

Then he saw where he was. In the middle of a big circus tent, just as he had dreamed with hun-too, humor is a sense of the ridiculous. And humanity in its bewilderment after the war is about 95 per cent ridiculous, so jokesmiths are perplexed when they seek contrasts that will strike people as funny.

When the ridiculous was isolated it was a joke. Now it's epidemic, pandemic. Humor is present—so much of it that few see it.

Gosh!

In walking east you weigh a fraction of an ounce less than when standing still. Weight increases a trifle when you move west. Such is the latest claim, in the wake of Einstein.

Applying it to railroading, a loaded freight car weighing 100 tons loses 40 pounds when traveling east 25 miles an hour, and gains 40 pounds when journeying west at the same speed.

By 1924 it probably will be proved that black is white. Mathematicians already are doubtful that two plus two exactly equals four.

LETTERS

There's a post office now for each strip of land 10 miles long and nearly six miles wide.

That's a big strip of land. With only one post office on it it reminds you of frontier days. Still, most of us are very close to a post office. It emphasizes how we Americans swarm in towns and cities, also how much land there is in the open country for each of us if we cared to live there.
